Description:
Photographic print in an album. Wayne drives the family's Allis-Chalmers tractor in from the field with a full load of bush beans in bushel baskets on a sled. Lenny stands in the background behind the sled of produce. Handwritten on the back of the print is, "Lenny, Wayne and a load of beans/1950?." This photograph is part of an album of the Wayne O. and Marion Turner farm which was in operation from 1945-1956 at RD 1, LaFayette, New York. It was first a chicken farm and then a vegetable truck farm. The Turner's sold produce at the Syracuse Regional Market during that time. After the farm stopped operating, the barn was re-modeled into The Syracuse Motel and part of the farm was sold to the Jewish Federation of Syracuse and made into "Camp Fren-Le."
