Description:

Photographic print in an album. Several dairy cows stand in a barnyard next to a large three-story barn. A watering trough is in the foreground. The herd is composed of different breeds of cows including holstein and probably Jersey. The barn has a fieldstone foundation, two sliding entry doors on the foundation level, and a central cupola on the roof. Evenly spaced windows are on the foundation level and less than a half-dozen windows are on the main floors.
