Description:

Photographic Print. The focus of the photograph is the side view of a building, which dominates the center of the print. The building has a front porch, chimney, and sign that says "Fair View." Eighteen figures pose outside the building, including one child and two women. The men hold guns. The building might be a general store in a hamlet in either Dutchess County or Westchester County. A wooden structure, which might be a well, also sits in front of the building. Framed on a black matte.
