Description:

Glass plate negative. View of Frank Robinson's House, possibly in Herkimer County, New York. The house is set on a small rise in the landscape. Two women stand on the porch of the two-story house. A man stands in the yard a short distance to the right of the porch. He has a dog with him. Another man stands in the yard to the left of the porch with his hands in his coat or vest pockets. On the right side of the house is a driveway. To the left of the house, and back slightly is a wooden silo connected to a barn. Tree branches frame the upper portion of the photograph.
