Description:

Slide transparency. A pink and white tricycle rests on top of the metal hutch of a handmade calf pen. A Holstein calf stands within the fence enclosure. Behind the pen, a milk truck with a large dent in its side has been parked by a red barn, likely picking up the milk. A hose extends from the truck through an open door into the barn. A cement stave silo rises in the left corner of the photograph, while another is just visible at the very right of the barn.
