Description:

Real photo postcard. View of The Page Seed Company in Greene, New York. On the side of the building is also painted "Seedsmen." The three story brick building is quite large and is along the railroad tracks. One portion of the tracks offshoot and go right up along the side of the building. Sidewalks are in front of the building, as well as a roadway with stones placed along it. Another three-story wood building is behind the factory building. Another shed is along the road with several cards parked beside it.
