Description:

Photographic Print. A crowd of men, women, and children are gathered in the bottom half of the print. In the bottom center there is a wooden platform that people are standing on. At the end of the platform is a staging area decorated with striped fabric and American flags. The crowd of people extends to the left and right of the platform. Many members of the crowd have umbrellas. They are probably gathered for a political event or a holiday. The top half of the print show open land, a train track with a train on it, and houses and trees in the distance. The print is framed by a tan mat.
