Description:

Real photo postcard. View of the condensary in Newport N.Y. from a fair distance away. On the roof is painted Michican Condensary Milk Company. The building is fairly large and made of brick or wood. A small entrance or building is on the front of the single floor building. Several ventilation cupolas are on the roof. On the right side is an earthen ramp where farmers likely drop off milk. A large smoke stack is on the back of the building. Another building is behind the condensary.
