Description:

Real photo postcard. Three men stand on top of a sleigh of loose hay reported to have weighed two and one-half tons (recorded on the postcard). A long ladder leans on the mound of hay on the left side. The man in the middle holds the reins to the horse team that is to carry the load. A thin layer of snow covers the ground. Directly behind the crew are the tops of utility poles and a church spire. A house is in partial view and a line of barren trees are on the right. "W.J. Landry" is signed on the back of the card.
