Description:

Photographic print in an album. Wayne O. Turner works in the fields likely preparing the field for planting, seeding the field or cultivating on his farm in LaFayette, Onondaga County, New York. A goose is to the right of the cultivator looking toward the ground. A caption with the photograph reads, "the goose planting peas." The farm was in operation from 1945-1956 at RD 1, LaFayette, New York. It was first a chicken farm and then a vegetable truck farm. The Turner's sold produce at the Syracuse Regional Market during that time. After the farm stopped operating, the barn was re-modeled into The Syracuse Motel and part of the farm was sold to the Jewish Federation of Syracuse and made into "Camp Fren-Le."
